EXCEPTIONS OF WEST VIRGINIA

Attorney General Lilly Files Seventeen to Master's Report

OFFER OF VIRGINIA

Younger State Says it Was Not Understood That Interest was to be Expected in Claim.

Washington, D. C., April 21.—A final brief has been filed with the United States Supreme Court by Attorney General Lilly, of West Virginia, in the Virginia-West Virginia debt case, making seventeen exceptions to the report of the master appointment, by the court to prepare a settlement, claiming credits of approximately $5,000,000 more than given by the master and stating a number of reasons why West Virginia should not be charged interest.

In the contract made between the two States to adjust the debt after a reasonable investigation, the West Virginia Attorney General declares no promise was made by the younger State to pay any interest and no consideration of interest was contemplated at the time of the making of the contract. He also gives numerous other reasons why no interest is chargeable.

Other credits now in the coffers of Virginia such as stocks in, and loans to, several railroads, of which West Virginia received no part, are claimed over and above credits named in the master's report to the extent of $10,797,318.16. West Virginia's share of this 23 1-2 per cent., would be $2,537,369.76, Attorney General Lilly declares.

Other credits claimed are $180,264.45 paid to Virginia by West Virginia counties as taxes after 1863, and moneys improperly charged to West Virginia of $170,771.46 making West Virginia's increase $2,888,405.67. This added to credits heretofore allowed by the master of $2,868,839.49 makes the total credits against Virginia's claim approximating $7,000,000 of $ 5,757,245.17.

If no interest is chargeable this would apparently make West Virginia's indebtedness just a little over $1,000,000, as compared with about $21,000,000 claimed by the Old Dominion.

A proposal to compromise the debt controversy through payment by West Virginia of $4,313,667.97, with interest since January 1, 1861, was submitted in the Supreme Court yesterday by Attorney-General Pollard, of Virginia. The interest probably would bring the total of this payment to about $18,000,000.

Net Balance in Treasury Steadily Decreasing—May Sell Canal Bonds

New York, April 21.—A special dispatch from Washington to the New York Tribune says:

"With the net balance in the Treasury down to the lowest point it has reached in years and steadily dropping, the first action expected on the return to his desk of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo is a sale of a substantial block of Panama Canal bonds.

"The net balance in the general fund of the Treasury yesterday was $25,400,531.

"The net balance has been dropping day by day at the rate of nearly $2,000,000 a week for months, despite the fact that the war revenue bill is in force and is producing revenue at the rate of more than $75,600,000 a year.

"Treasury officials profess great optimism about the situation and assert that a total of about $80,000,000 will be brought in during June by the income and corporation income taxes. While undoubtedly a large amount will be brought by the taxes financiers outside of the department do not believe that it will reach anything like that sum."

NEWS OF THE DAY

While roller skating yesterday afternoon at the intersection of Fourteenth and D streets northwest, just in the rear of the District building, Washington, Sammy Singer, 8 years old, son of Lewis Singer, a tailor, rolled under a heavy delivery truck of the Union Transfer Company. One of his legs was crushed. The boy was taken to the Emergency Hospital where it was found necessary to amputate the left leg at the knee. The boy's condition is serious. It is feared that he has been internally injured and his right leg was broken.

Rumors are current in Rome that a general peace in Europe at no distant date, extravagant as the statement may seem, will solve the grave problems confronting Italy and that time will only diminish the expediency of her intervention. One fact, which is clothed with much significance, is that the advent of spring has brought no such resumption of aggressive hostilities as had been promised.

The report is in circulation in Wilmington, Del., that John Basset Moore, late counselor to the State Department, may become a Democratic candidate for United States Senator from Delaware in the campaign next year.

Miss Fola La Follette, daughter of the Senator from Wisconsin, Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, and Mrs. Helena Hill Wood will be the principal speakers at the reception to be given tomorrow afternoon by the Congressional Union for Woman's Suffrage to the members of the D. A. R. The reception will be held at the Willard, Washington.

Theodore Roosevelt went upon the witness stand in the supreme court at Syracuse, N. Y., yesterday and testified in an effort to prove his contention that he was justified in causing the publication of the statement which William Barnes sued him to recover $50,000 for alleged libel. He said that the former chairman of the Republican State ecommittee had urged him not to antagonize men of large business interests who contributed to both the Democratic and Republican parties so that they would be protected.

Jack Johnson, the former champion heavyweight puglist, and his wife sailed from Havana yesterday for Spain. From Spain Johnson intends to proceed to England. Although he has no passport, Johnson says he expects to experience no trouble. He says he will return to Havana in June and open a gymnasium.

Two Turkish torpedo-boat destroyers were blown up, says a Saloniki dispatch, while passing through a mine belt which Russian ships had succeeded in laying across the entrance to the Bosphorus while the Turkish fleet was cruising in the Black Sea.

Two French aerial squadrons again attacked railway positions along the Rhine Monday afternoon, bombarding successfully the Mullheim and Habscheim stations and Mannheim. Proceeding north, they reached Mannheim at dusk and set fire to vast depots containing fodder for 1,600 cattle, which they burned down completely.

The preservation of the common interests of all the powers in China by the insufance of the independence and the integrity of the Chinese republic and the principal of equal opportunities for the commerce and industry of all nations in China, was declared by Sir Edward Grey, foreign secretary, to be the policy of the British government in China. Sir Edward spoke in the British house of commons.

A dynamite bomb, powerful enough to wreck the east wing of the State capitol building, at Denver, Colo., was found yesterday in the office of the printing commissioner. The explosive was removed before any damage was done.

Japan has ordered all her warships in Pacific waters near the American coasts, except those salvaging the wrecked cruiser Asama, in Turtle Bay, to return to their home stations.

ITALY READY TO ENTER CONTEST

Feverish Excitement in Rome as Plans Are Being Perfected

AUSTRIA IS PREPARED

Both Countries Massing Troops at Strategic Points With Large Quantities of Munitions.

Rome, April 21—It is now up to the Italian government. So far as the army and navy are concerned, they are ready to striks at a moment's notice.

Troops are concentrated at the strategic positions from which the first hostile movement against Austria must be made. The navy is rendezvoused in readiness to protect the Italian coast cities from any raid by the Austrian fleet which is still at Pola.

The Italian cabinet will meet tomorrow and at that time it is expected definite action will be taken. Meanwhile all steamers are held at their docks except where special permission to sail is granted by the minister of marine.

Advices from every section of the Austrian frontier tell of feverish war preparations. The Austrian military officials at least do not believe that concessions are to be made to Italy. They are massing troops and their aeroplanes are reported flying close to Italian territory at a dozen different points.

Troop trains are interfering with regular traffic on the main railway lines and great quantities of munitions are being massed ready for use.

It is reported that martial law has been proclaimed, owing to disorders.

A large contingent of Austrian troops, the reports say, have been quartered at Monfalcone, Ronchi, and Sarado. The Austrians also are said to have fortified strongly the whole line of the Isono river with intrenchments, behind which batteries already are in position.

The Messaggero says that Michael de Giers, the new Russian ambassador to Italy, is delaying his arrival in Rome because of his desire before leaving Petrograd to arrange with his own government for the conclusion of a thorough agreement between Russia and Italy, nor only concerning Italy's intervention in the war, but with regard to Italy's position when peace is reached.

KILLED BY EXPLOSION.

Erie, Pa., April 21.—Samuel Leonoff, 60, was killed his wife, Katherine, seriously injured, and fifteen others badly hurt, when the Leonoff home was destroyed early today by a dynamite explosion.

The two-story wooden house was blown almost to bits. Only parts of the walls were left standing.

The injured were hauled from the ruins by police and firemen.

The explosion was directly underneath the first floor room where Mr. and Mrs. Leonoff were sleeping. All the others were on the second floor and escaped the full force of the blast.

The police believe the explosion was caused by black handers.

John S. Bennett, 53 years old, of Washington, a machinist, employed at the Washington navy yard, was crushed by a machine yesterday, shortly after noon. He died in an ambulance on the way to the Casualty Hospital, from abdominal injuries. Mr. Bennett was operating a big planer, surfacing a piece of steel at the time of the accident.

POTOMAC PRESBYTERY.

Rev. R. A. Fleming, of Baltimore, Chosen Moderator.

The Rev. Robert F. Fleming, of Dickey Memorial Church, Baltimore, was elected moderator of the Potomac presbytery at the first session last night of the body, which is holding its annual meeting in the Central Presbyterian Church, Sixteenth and Irving streets northwest, Washington. The Rev. T. W. Hooper, Jr., of Mitchels, Va., placed the name of Mr. Fleming before the presbytery and on motion of the pastor of Central Church, the Rev. James H. Taylor, his election was made by acclamation.

The sermon last night was preached by the Rev. W. W. Shaw, pastor of Mount Washington Church, Baltimore county, the retiring moderator. The Rev Dr. W. H. Woods, of Franklin Square Church, Baltimore, the stated secretary, called the roll of the churches in the presbytery. The Rev. T. W. Hooper, Jr., called the list of ministers who had thus far reported.

The Rev. Dr. William H. Bates, of the Washington presbytery, was invited to sit as a corresponding member upon motion by Dr. Taylor. C. P. Janney, of Leesburg, Va., conducted the devotional services, which began this morning at 9:30 which were followed by a business meeting lasting until 1 o'clock which will be the hours each day for the morning session. The afternoon sessions will be from 2:30 to 5, and the evening services at 7:30. Luncheon will be served at the church today and tomorrow at 1 o'clock for the members and their hosts. The meeting will close tomorrow afternoon or night.

Since the sessions are being held in the church of President Wilson, he is expected to be present at tonight's session and make a short address.

Rev. J. L. Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of this city, is attending the Presbytery.

CRISIS IN FAR EAST

United States Refuses to Reveal its Policy

The administration is continuing its policy of refusing to reveal what action, if any, it is taking with reference to the crisis existing in the Far East, as the result of the negotiations between Japan and China. Secretary Bryan still refuses to entertain inquiries on the subject or give information of any sort regarding the part the United States is playing.

In connection with Sir Edward Grey's announcement in the House of Commons yesterday that Great Britain is adhering to the principles of the open door in China and equal opportunity for all, set forth in her treaty with Japan, the statement was authorized that the United States government is adhering to the same policy.

Sir Edward Grey's statement was regarded as of considerable importance.

The administration was some time ago given to understand that neither Great Britain, France nor Russia, the other powers interested in China had relinquished any rights with regard to China. This has been interpreted to mean that after the war a reckoning with Japan may be looked for. Officials here are confident that after the present pressing questions are disposed of by the termination of the European war, the action of the Japanese in China will be scrutinized, and revocation of anything regarded as contrary to Japan's international obligations, or the rights of the interested powers, will be demanded.

The United States government holds the belief that it will thus be unnecessary for this government to resort to any drastic action, as there are other powers so much more vitally interested in the same principles which the United States supports, that can be counted on to rectify any errors on the part of Japan.

ROOSEVELT ON STAND TODAY

Former President has Much to Say Concerning His Charges

WITNESS IS LIMITED

Cannot Testify Regarding Matters Not Specifically Raised in Justification of Libel Charge

Syracuse, N. Y. April 21—This is "T. R. Day" in the Barnes-Roosevelt libel trial. Colonel Roosevelt is likely to be on the witness stand all day. Revelations of "bossism" and "bi-partisan machine rule in New York politics" are expected in the climax of Roosevelt's testimony.

Colonel Roosevelt's testimony of bi-partisan bossism charges against William Barnes was greatly limited today by ruling of Trial Justice Andrews. The ruling cuts out much sensational evidence planned by the defense in the libel suit and was regarded as a serious setback for Roosevelt.

Justice Andrews ruled that Roosevelt cannot testify regarding matters not specifically raised in justification of the libel charges and must limit his testimony to such matters as may be in his answer.

The fight today centers on an attempt to link Barnes with "Boss" Murphy, of Tamany Hall, in political business.

It is evident that the Roosevelt plans to prove by circumstantial evidence the charges of "an alliance of crooked business and crooked politics" between Barnes and Murphy as head of their organizations, little direct testimony is expected. Barnes whole thought and effort is to disprove the Barnes-Murphy alliance charges. He frequently prompts his lawyers along this line.

Justice Andrews has ruled that bipartisan campaign contributions are a circumstantial fact indicating political partnership.

PEACE TALK PREMATURE

Paris, April 21—This is no time even to suggest peace talk. Stoppage of the war at this time would benefit only Germany. The allies have assumed the task of crushing Prussian militarism and "must refuse to be diverted from that task."

That is the word given Colonel E. M. House, personal friend and "observer" for President Wilson, who is now in this city. Because of the various stories in circulation coupling the Texas-New York financier with a real peace mission, a high official of the government visited him today.

It was desired to prevent embarrassment and the visit was unofficial. But the position of the allies was made very plain.

In blunt, but very courterous language Colonel House was told that if he desired to initiate a movement for peace this was not the time. Such a mission was worse than useless. Any real or attempted movement to end the war with German troops holding the long line through French territory and Belgium would give Germany too great an advantage. And Coloned House was told that France could view only with disfavor the initiation of a movement for Germany's benefit.

The allies are now prepared, he was told, with men, money and ommunition, to continue the war until Germany is completely defeated. The countries are united on the necessity of continuation to ultimate victory.

The allies daily are growing stronger, while Germany daily is growing weaker.

Any attempt by the United States to bring about peace now would be regarded by Frenchmen, so Colonel House was informed, as an unfriendly act on the part of Americans.

It is understood that Colonel House will communicate the substance of the statement presented to him to President Wilson at Washington.

W. Floyd Reams, of Richmond, prominent in the social and business life of the city, was elected grand regent by acclamation. Mr. Reams, who is only 38 years old, has the distinction of being the youngest man ever elevated to the highest office within the gift of the order. FOREST FIRES RAGE IN VIRGINIA

Miners Fight to Keep Plants From Being Destroyed by Flames

NO DEATHS REPORTED

Church Meeting Broken up and Worshipers Rush out and Vie with Others in Fighting Fire.

Bristol, Va., April 21—Due to a prevailing drought in the Southwest Virginia Mountains coal mines and mining plants have been seriously threatened by forest fires for several days. These fires have made such progress as to require the service of hundreds of miners to protect the mines and plants at the Inman operations, near Appalachia; plants of the Stonega Coal and Coke Company, at Stonega; the Virginia Lee Mines, in Lee County, and other mining operations in that field. The Stonega Coal and Coke Company is said to have lost much timber, while its plants have been protected only by determined fighting.

Although there is no direct communication with the Inman lines of the Virginia Iron and Coal and Coke Company, near Appalachia, it is currently reported that fire has developed in the mines, and that strenuous efforts are being made to extinguish the blaze. It is stated that thus far no miners have lost their lives.

Fredericksburg, Va., April. 21—Forest fires are doing great damage in this section. One is now raging on the 6,000 acre furnace tract in Spottsylvania County, and several miles have already been burned over, destroying much valuable timber and fncing. Near Tacketts Mills, in Stafford County, 2,000 or more acres of timber land have been burned. On Sunday while preaching was in progress at Rock Hill Church fire was discovered approaching the church and the congregation disbanded and joined the fire fighters. Fire in the lower end of Fauquier County has done great damage. Grace Church was injured by the fire, and the home of Mrs. Brown nearby was destroyed. Fire is also raging in the lower end of Culpeper County near the junction of the Rappahannock and Rapidan Rivers.

Louisa, Va., April 21.—About ten miles of woodland, including many farm buildings, were wiped out by fire in this county this week. The fire is thought to have had its beginning as a result of sparks from a locomotive, which ignited the old Sherwood place.

The fire destroyed the dwelling house of John G. May and other buildings on his place and spread to buildings owned by Mrs. Ross. Oakland was reached by the flames before they could be extinguished.

Lexington, Ky., April 21—Reports reaching here tell of forest fires sweeping across vast areas in the Eastern Kentucky mountain district. Floyd, Martin, Letcher and Pike Counties are said to be in the path of the blaze, and already according to reports, miles of farmers, fences and numerous isolated small buildings of farmers have been destroyed.

It is believed the fires which raged in the stricken section two weeks ago and were partially extinguished by rain simply smothered and have broken out anew.

COLLECTS TAX ON POTOMAC.

Virginia Fisheries Police Steamer Phillips Leaves This Port.

After having spent several days at Alexandria and vicinity collecting the license tax imposed by the state of Virginia upon residents of the state operating fish nets, the Virginia fisheries police steamer Phillips left here Monday on a tax-collecting cruise along the Potomac. The first stop of the Phillips, after leaving Alexandria, will be in Occoquan and from there she will work her way to the mouth of the river. The master of the Phillips states that in consequence of the poor fishing season so far he is finding it difficult to induce the fishermen to meet their obligations to the state. The Phillips about twice a year makes a license tax-collecting cruise alonx the Potomac, the first time in the spring and again in the fall, to see the persons she failed to locate on her first visit.

ANOTHER GLEAM OF HOPE.

Letter of Judge Roan Will Be Used by Frank's Attorneys in Plea for Clemency

Atlanta, Ga., April 21—A letter from the late Judge L. S. Roan, in which the jurist stated —he would appear before the prison commission in behalf of Leo M. Frank if he lived until the case reached that body, will form a strong part of the plea of the attorneys for executive clemency.

This letter is in possession of Frank's attorneys, and they consider it their card. The attorneys refuse to make the letter public in advance of the filing of the petition for clemency.

Judge Roan, before his death, remarked to several people that if alive when the case reached the pardon board he would ask for clemency for the prisoner, who was convicted of murder before him, and of whose guilt he publicly expressed a doubt when he passed upon the motion for a new trial.

The people to whom his remarks to this effect are said to have been made by the judge will appear before the commission.

While Frank's attorneys at the hearing will be fortified with the expressed desire of the judge that mercy be extended the prisoner, it is said the petition will carry no request for mercy from any of the twelve jurymen who passed on Frank's case as it frequently the case.

The petition for clemency is being prepared and will probably be filed this week

Frank's attorneys will claim before the prison commission that the question of Frank's guilt or innocence has been passed upon only once at the original trial, where they claim, the court was dominated by mob spirit. The other hearings of the case they will arne, dealt with the technicalities of the law, not with the issue of innocence or guilt.

BRIDEGROOM VANISHES.

Memphis, Tenn., April 21.—Offering to sell her wedding ring for $8, Mrs. Relda White Johnson, a bride of 24 hours, has begun preparation of a suit for divorce. She will charge desertion.

Johnson is accused of deserting his bride at the Arlington Hotel a few hours after the ceremony. He left their room, saying he would return after being shaved. That was the last she saw of him.

Mrs. Johnson says she met the man at Main street and Poplar avenue. They went to a moving picture show a few minutes later and the next morning they were married after he had purchased a wedding ring. They spent the night at the Arlington Hotel and then he disappeared.

KILLED BY BASEBALLS.

Two boys were killed by being struck by baseballs within the past few days. One youngster had his skull fractured by a batted ball in New Jersey and another at Ashland, Virginia. The latter was hurried to Richmond and every effort was made to save his life, but he soon lapsed into unconsciousness and expired.

A little boy living in the western section of Alexandria was struck on the eye a few days ago by a ball thrown by another youngster. He was so seriously injured that he was taken to Washington and placed under the care of a specialist. It is feared that he will lose the sight of the eye.

A young woman, it will be remembered, had her nose broken by a baseball in the same section of the city last year.

Nearly every street in Alexandria is used as baseball diamonds after school hours. Boys are participating in games are throwing balls at each other, and passersby are kept in continual danger of being struck. The police make their rounds regularly and do all they can towards eliminating this menace, but, as they cannot remain on any one square, as soon as the officers move away the pastime is renewed.

Games are essentials to juveniles. All recognize this. We have been young and entered heartily into juvenile pastimes. But could not these youngsters hie themselves to vacant lots or commons and indulge in their sports at pleasure?

MORE PEACE SPECULATIONS.

Observers in Rome announce that they have discovered the star of peace through the clouds, and that the orb through feint, is drawing near. Dispatches from the Eternal City say that within the past twenty four hours the impression has prevailed that a general peace in Europe is not far distant. These speculations are made respectable by the fact that they are reflected in high quarters and given heed by careful observers of international policies. One hopeful sign is said to be the fact that there has not been such a wholesale resumption of activities among the comoattants as had been announced for theo pening of spring. This is regarded as especially significant. It is earnestly hoped that these forecasts will prove true.

Sir John French has been telling the people of Great Britain that the duration of the war depends on the supply of men and amunition.

Another observer who has returned to New York from the Continent of Europe expresses the opinion that in some six months more the war will collapse because of the exhaustion of the materials for carrying it on, explaining that it is impossible to place in the United States the heavy orders for shells that are offered. None of the countries concerned in the war appear to have considered what keeping armies of millions of men in the field would mean in the way of consumed materials. There are things being learned in this struggle that may make rulers slow in desiring another.

AUTOMOBILES TERRIBLE TOLL.

Eight people were killed outright in automobile accidents in different parts of the United States last Sunday, and many more more or less injured. In some cases the disasters were unavoidable, while in others thoughtlessness and recklessness were the prime causes.

Automobiles have come to stay and their number is being steadily multiplied. It is probably the most pleasant means of transit known, but danger always lurks in their paths. Many things can happen, and often do happen which bring joy riders to grief. These accidents do not always occur to the inexperienced, but often chauffeurs, supposed to be experts, are victims of terrible disasters.

A few years ago a wealthy woman in New York, after enjoying an evening in her machine, ordered the driver, employed by her at good monthly salary, to return the auto to the garage. Instead of obeying her command, he whisked into another street and took on as many women as could crowd into the vehicle, and started on a joy ride. While passing through a street near the docks on the west side of the city, the automobile suddenly became unmanageable, ran out on a wharf and made a plunge into the river. Most of the occupants were drowned.

"Safety first" is an admonition painted in large letters upon all the stations on the electric road between this city and Washington. It is a good motto for all, especially for those who hold the wheels of automobiles.

HOLLAND HIT BY WAR

Shiping Trade of Rotterdam Shows Enormous Decline

The transit shipping trade of Rotterdam is suffering to an enormous extent. In peace times this port ranks third in Europe for this kind of traffic. During January and February only 749 vessels of all kinds entered port as compared with 1,705 in the corresponding period of 1914 and their tonnage was only 804,511 against 2,096,612 in January and February last year.

The loss is due not only to the curtailment of traffic by sea, but also to the fact that a large proportion of the usually immense water borne trad e with the Rhine districts has been cut off by the prohibition of export of certain goods. The labor exchanges are consequently more crowded every day with the numberless unemployed. Groups of them are to be seen also at all hours of the day around the wharves.

In addition to the suffering thus caused to seamen and ship-builders who form a large proportion of Rotterdam's population, the ordinary building trades have been the victim both of bad weather and the wide spread hesitation to invest money at this time. The plumber, incidentally has been an exception, the rainy weather having kept him busy all winter.

WANTS LESS SECRECY.

London, April 21.—Another appeal to the government to take the country further into its confidence is contained in an editorial in the Times, which points out that except for local successes the war situation has undergone little apparent change in the past five months.

The paper declares that changes in the abttle line during that period on both the eastern and western fronts hardly would be noticed by a map maker, while official statements regarding the Dardanelles operations leave much to be desired.

"We urge the government," says the Times, "to use every effort to make the nation understand how small is the progress yet attained on land and how great and manifold are teh sacrifices which still must be faced."

Speaking at a meeting of the New York Theater Club at the Hotel Astor, New York, yesterday afternoon, Commodore J. Stuart Blackton, president of the Vitagraph Company of America, said that for the year 1913 $275,000,000 was paid by the general public for admission to various motion picture houses throughout the country. Commodore Blackton said more than 11,000,000 people visit moving picture theaters daily in this country. He added that during 1913 40,000 miles of moving picture film was made, or enough to go around the earth and to provide 30 tintypes for every citizen of the United States.

FIERCE ATTACK ON RUSSELL

Richmond Minister Prints Him as Combination of Ignorance and Colossal Conceit.

Richmond, April 21—A combination of ignorance and colossal conceit is the description of Pastor Russell contained in the sermon Sunday night of Dr. Ashbury Christain, pastor of Union Station Methodist Church. That he and his followers, though admittedly ignorant of Greek and Hebrew, undertake in their pamphlets to explain and expound both and to call into question the translators of the Bible, was one of the charges launched by the preacher against Russell and Russellism.

"Who Is He Who Calls Himself Pastor Russell?" was the subject of last night's sermon, which was the first of a series on "The Unscriptual Anti-Christain and Ruinous Teachings of Russell"

Dr. Christain took for his text those words of Jesus "Beware of false prohets which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves." He spoke of a sermon he had preached on future punishment and an attempted reply which, as a handbill was scattered abroad. Some followers of Russell did it to propagate their pernicious teachings. These men undertook to discuss Greek and Hebrew terms when the truth was that they told not know a word of either language. He said he had no word of censure for the ignorant misguided followers, but pitied them in their ignorance. He felt it was his duty, however, to warn the people committed to his care against the most unscriptural and ruinous teaching of these modern times Russellism." Every religious teaching or cult is largely dependent upon the founder of leader," he said. "This is especially true of 'Russellism' of 'Millennial Dawnism,' for Russell seems to be the founder, teacher, manager, universal pastor and possessor and holder of its property. It is of the utmost importance, therefore, to know who the man is who calls himself 'Pastor Russell, and whether his reputation accredits him as a religious leader and teacher.

"For an expounder of scripture or a teacher of theology an education is necessary. It seems that Russell only went to school seven years, stopped at fourteen and has never taken a course in theology, church history philosophy or the languages. He undertakes to explain and expound Greek and Hebrew and to call in question the translators of the Bible.

BLACKHANDER IN TOILS.

Benjamin Seidle, Alias George F. Huntley, Takes Decoy Letter Bait.

Petersburg, Va., April 21.—Benjamin Seidle, alias George F. Huntley, was placed under arrest here Monday by Inspector Hal B. Mosby, of the postoffice department and Chief of Police R. F. Ragland charged with attempting to extort money from Conrad M. Zimmerman, an official of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore.

Mr. Zimmerman, whose home is at Rossville, Md., received a "black hand" letter a few days ago, dated Petersburg, Va., April 15, and signed by George F. Huntley. The letter read in part as follows: "I want it at once, now, $50 in cash. If you fail to send me it your home will be burned down to ashes, also your lives will be taken. Don't show nobody else this; if you do you are in more danger. Address General Delivery, Petersburg, Va."

Inspector Mosby, of this city, was notified by wire Saturday and a decoy letter containing a marked $5 bill was addressed to Huntley according to directions. About 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning Seidle appeared at the general delivery window of the Petersburg postoffice with a written order for Huntley's mail. He was given the decoy letter and was followed by Inspector Mosby and Clerk Howard P. Wills. He proceeded down Tabb street to Sycamore thence to an alley leading between the Kent furniture store and the jewelry store of T. A. James. When he reached the rear of the James building he concealed himself among some empty boxes, where he opened the letter and removed the money. He was placed under arest and lodged in jail.

POSITION OF UNITED STATES

President Wilson Gives Definite and Clear Statement at Luncheon

Ney York, April 21—President Wilson yesterday gave a definite and clear statement of the neutrality which is guiding his administration during the war in Europe. He chose the occasion of the annual luncheon of the Associated Press for what he said he regarded as a statement of gravest importance to the American people.

The President, among other things said it is clear that the affairs of the world are drawing rapidly to a climax, and that no nation is fit to sit in judgment upon any other nation.

"Let us think of America before we think of Europe in order that America may be fit to be Europe's friend when the day of tested friendship comes."

"The basis of neutrality is sympathy for mankind. It is fairness, it is good will at bottom.

"Men are saying that if we should go to war on either side there would be a divided America—an abominable libel of ignorance.
